

24,309
participants*

Enhancing access to quality health care, particularly primary and preventive care, by improving the supply and distribution of health care professionals through community/academic educational partnerships.

Pipeline Programs expose students to health careers and develop intent to pursue post-secondary education in primary health care professions.

3,799
grades 9-16 participants (many thousands more participated at the K-8 level)

from disadvantaged backgrounds

from rural backgrounds

underrepresented minorities

Clinical Training

improves readiness, willingness and ability of health professions trainees to serve in primary care, rural and underserved community settings.

facilitated 653
residency rotations

415

health professions students placed in rural and underserved locations

- 148 medical students
- 10 nursing students
- 25 behavioral health students
- 18 dental students
- 214 associated health professions students

Training Sites

 used include:

- 21 located in a rural area
- 47 primary care setting
- 68 located in a medically underserved community

Continuing education programs address key issues in health professional shortage areas by providing health professionals with access to resources that support practice, reduce professional isolation, disseminate best practices and improve quality of health care for medically underserved communities and health disparities populations.

6,214
continuing education participants

employed in medically underserved communities